

City

One, two, three, listen the city

[Verse 1]

End of another day, through the yesterday thoughts
Coming up..., new blood stream from the morning lights

When your nightmare's falling down and
Coffee drug pulls and rises you from the bottom

From Sydney up to London
Sun brings dawn and spins around for..
Another chance or hope ooh ooh ooh
You caught a challenge from city, city
Another chance for love, ooh, ooh, ooh
You caught a challenge from city, city

[Instrumental Chorus]

[Verse 2]

Dreaming on new thoughts in a full traffic jam
Reading out new Forbes' hero from magazine scan

Get over all your worry
Throw over calls of "sorry"
City doesn't like tears and honing
Wounding, wounding you for bounding..
Another chance or hope ooh ooh ooh

You caught a challenge from city, city
Another chance for love, ooh, ooh, oooh
You caught a challenge from city, city
