

You Are My Destiny

I never so you in twilight in the moon light
You're my secret destiny
I got to promise and then I every night
To never feel the pain of broking heart
You're my sole life. You're my whole life
Just never be a friend of my mind life
Give me just sometime
Loving is not crime, give me your heart
You're my only one, you must believe me
You're my destiny that gives sense to me
Never cry hard, almost my life
You are the only one who gives sence to me
In the moon light, show me you're eyes
And I'll give you all the world
All the shining, all the smiling
To never feel the pain of broking heart
You're my sole life. You're my whole life
Just never be a friend of my mind life
Give me just sometime
Loving is not crime, give me your heart
You're my only one, you must believe me
You're my destiny that gives sense to me
Never cry hard, almost my life
You are the only one who gives sence to me
So want to be like everybody
Want to be like only shiny
Could be holding your hot body in the right time
Want to be holding your hot body
Want to be dancing with the honey
I wish your mine best for my baby
For all of the night!
You're my only one, you must believe me
You're my destiny that gives sense to me
Never cry hard, almost my life
You are the only one who gives sence to me
You're my only one, you must believe me
You're my destiny that gives sense to me
Never cry hard, almost my life
You are the only one who gives sence to me
You're my only one, you must believe me
You're my destiny that gives sense to me
Never cry hard, almost my life
You are the only one who gives sence to me
